

Watermill Theatre - Name a seat
Terms and Conditions

1. Seats are named for a period of 5 years, after which the The Watermill Theatre reserves the right to make the seat available to re-name. We will endeavour to contact you before this expiry date to give you an opportunity to name it again.
2. Your chosen dedication will be engraved on a plaque, and it will be attached to your chosen seat. Inscriptions must not include any expletives or derogatory statements.
3. The supporter named on the seat does not own the seat at any point. The seat will remain the property of the The Watermill Theatre.
4. We reserve the right to reconfigure the seating for certain productions. This could result in your named seat being relocated or removed for the period of that production.
5. Naming a seat does not include admission to individual performances or events or guarantee allocation of that seat for a particular performance.
6. The donation made towards naming a seat is non-refundable.
7. You cannot request for your named seat to be changed for an alternative seat after your donation is made.
8. You cannot change the inscription you have chosen to be engraved after confirmation with the Development team, or after the inscription has been engraved on the plaque.
9. Accidental damage to plaques will be repaired/replaced by The Watermill at no extra cost to the donor.
